New Features and Enhancements

- (6390) Digital Assets Manager: The Asset Type field on the Digital Asset Detail page is obsolete and has been removed.
- (6392) Digital Assets Manager: Browser caching had sometimes caused pages to display the previous version of an edited image rather than the current version. ACM now displays the current version of images that were edited in Digital Assets Manager. Users no longer have to refresh pages in edit mode and view mode to see the current image,
- (6389) Digital Assets Manager: The Edit Digital Asset Image page now has a Save as New button.

- (6404) Digital Assets Manager: When you click the Close button after having edited an image on the Edit Digital Asset Image page, the message that appears has been updated to display these three buttons: Save, Discard, and Cancel.

- (6062) Translations: The Translations section of the Page Type Details page now has a check box beside each translation. You can now revert to default values by selecting the translations in question and clicking the Load Defaults button.
